“Training Leaders for Success in the 21st Century”

Timothy F. Johnson, Ph.D.

Biography

Born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio, Dr. Johnson has been community oriented since he was a child. Earning the Boy Scouts of America highest rank, the Eagle Scout Award at the age of 14, he has continued to be a servant leader throughout his adult life. After completing 21 years of military service, he joined AmeriCorps and served with the Atlanta Habitat for Humanity. It was during this time that he was encouraged by the organization’s development director and decided to start Leadership 101, LLC. Well versed in leadership development theories and educated in quality management principles appropriate for non profit organizations, Timothy decided the best way to assist current and future leaders working in the non-profit community was to initiate a business that would address the major problems facing many of them today, "Leadership ready to lead." The thought then and now, is leaders lead best when they keep it simple, direct and intentional. Hence are name.

During the past three years, Dr. Johnson has presented and spoken at numerous conferences around the country to include:

- 1) The Points of Light Foundation/Hands On Network Annual International Conferences,
- 2) The State Commissions for Volunteerism and Services in Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, Missouri, Tennessee, and Virginia ,
- 3) Numerous corporations, trade associations, and community not for profit organizations

Continuing to be very active, his past and current services on boards and advisory councils include:

- US Department of Labor/ETA, Federal Committee on Registered Apprenticeship
- YouthBuild USA Directors Council
- AmeriCorps Alums National Leadership Council
- North Carolina Housing Coalition
- Big Brother/Big Sisters of Western North Carolina
- YMI Cultural Center
- Leadership Asheville Program Advisory Council

Graduate of:

- United Way of Metro Atlanta Volunteers Involvement Program
- Leadership Asheville

He holds degrees from the University of Arizona, Troy University and LaSalle University.

He is an adjunct professor at Shaw University’s College of Professional and Adult Education Asheville campus. Dr. Johnson is married and the proud father of four children and two grandsons.
